Miles Eng

3015 126th Ave NE, Bellevue, Washington | 425-230-7212
miles.eng21@gmail.com

Summary

Driven first-year student at Duke University seeking real-world, hands-on experience in science and tech fields. Ambitious, organized, and adaptable, a quick-learner with foundations in collaborative science.

Education

Duke University | Durham, NC
Computer Science + Global Health | 05/2025
GPA: 4.0/4.0

Relevant coursework:

- Fall 2021: COMPSCI101 Intro to Computer Science
- Spring 2022: COMPSCI201 Data Structures & Algorithms, STA199 Intro to Data Science

Projects

Personal website: https://milesreng.github.io (other projects linked on website)

Experience

Barnes & Noble | WA, Kirkland
Bookseller and Barista | 05/2021 - 08/2021

- Greeted customers, asking questions to identify needs, and used knowledge of products to provide book recommendations
- Handcrafted high-quality beverages with attention to detail
- Maintained cleanliness of front lobby and workspace

Target | WA, Redmond
Starbucks Barista/Cashier | 11/2019 - 04/2021

- Increased customer satisfaction ratings by 28 percentage points, drink quality ratings by 38 percentage points between Jan 2020 and April 2021
- Trained new employees in procedures for handcrafting beverages

Gender Diversity | WA, Seattle
Workshop Facilitator Volunteer | 01/2018 - 12/2020

- Brainstormed, organized, and presented workshops and spoke on panels at health conferences for trans youth, families, and medical professionals
- Created programming for bi-weekly Covid-friendly webinars for trans youth/families

Pacific Science Center | WA, Bellevue
Science Educator (Camp Counselor) | 04/2018 - 08/2018

- Create and lead basic science lesson plans in fields like biology, chemistry, and astronomy
- For 5-6 hrs/day, oversee groups of 15-30 campers (ages 6-13) and communicate effectively with parents

Skills

Problem-solving, Collaboration, Python, Java, HTML/CSS, RStudio